General Announcements:

The EAA Young Eagle build: "We are nearing the completion of the plane. The fuselage covering is complete and the base color coat on the wings is also complete. We will start on the trim colors for the wing this Saturday. Tail and stab covering will also be the focus this Saturday. We hope to have the plane ready to maiden in early March."

Report from Tim Stebbins via email to the club president.

Safety:

Once again, I stress cold and wet weather has continued. Dress appropriately, bring hand or foot warmers, and a hot drink. Fly with a friend if possible; if alone at the field, use extra caution.

Competition Results -

None, Competition will resume the first Saturday in April. There will be a meeting the last Saturday of March along with the Winter Build judging and Maidens.
